1	Positive and aspirational	Feb 27, 2014 3:37 AM
2	positive day	Feb 17, 2014 6:34 AM
3	varied between very good and very poor	Feb 17, 2014 5:19 AM
4	very motivating	Feb 14, 2014 2:30 AM
5	I really enjoyed it and met people from other service I either deal with but have never met face to face or have never heard about.	Feb 13, 2014 5:43 AM
6	Very well organised, very positive.	Feb 10, 2014 6:20 AM
7	How to communicate better	Feb 10, 2014 5:16 AM
8	felt this was a very positive experience	Feb 7, 2014 12:36 AM
9	really encouraging to see forth valley embrace recovery	Feb 5, 2014 10:28 AM
10	Excellent! Loved the format and really enjoyed the day.	Feb 5, 2014 9:17 AM
11	it was fabulous , very energetic and motivating	Feb 5, 2014 8:23 AM
12	Very informative	Feb 5, 2014 7:18 AM
13	Very positive. Open and participative methodology	Feb 5, 2014 7:14 AM
14	Felt a sense of everybody being equal, belonging, encouraged to say what they really thought, lovely caring environment to be in, I felt encouraged	Feb 5, 2014 6:22 AM
15	The cafe extended a warmth not common in the conference arena more generally. The Cafe was inclusive and there were a variety of ways in which to communicate. it was also very motivational resetting the compass and being outward looking and more recovery focussed.	Feb 5, 2014 6:16 AM
16	very positive	Feb 5, 2014 5:56 AM
17	It was a very warm welcoming atmosphere	Feb 5, 2014 5:08 AM
18	Interesting dynamic of working group, took a while to gel however connected appropriately.	Feb 3, 2014 7:11 AM

Page 3, Q2. What themes emerged in the conversations that you took part in at the event?

1	A real drive to try to move things forward in terms of recovery in forth valley. Role of peer supporters in growing a recovery community.	Feb 27, 2014 3:37 AM
2	services in the area who could help	Feb 17, 2014 6:34 AM
3	unsure	Feb 17, 2014 5:19 AM
4	that people are passionate and committed to recovery	Feb 14, 2014 2:30 AM
5	That recovery is hard and can be a difficult process and that it takes courage.	Feb 13, 2014 5:43 AM
6	progression, service users having support to visibly move through services	Feb 10, 2014 6:20 AM
7	Stigma	Feb 10, 2014 5:16 AM
8	how wide recovery is and far reaching it could be in respect of all services	Feb 7, 2014 12:36 AM
9	very varied	Feb 5, 2014 10:28 AM
10	recovery as process	Feb 5, 2014 9:17 AM
11	Need to understand the whole community as resource for recovery	Feb 5, 2014 8:23 AM
12	What people in recovery want Lack of information about what is available to people in recovery	Feb 5, 2014 7:18 AM
13	Need for service users, communities, families and services to work together to promote and sustain recovery capital.	Feb 5, 2014 7:14 AM
14	How important it is to network, know what other agencies do, how important it is to empower Service Users.	Feb 5, 2014 6:22 AM
15	The need to focus on those well into their recovery when and if they have a dip in motivation or feel isolated from appropriate support. There are a range of community supports but we do not seem to use what is already there, a focus on a whole community response and breaking down barriers would be advantageous.	Feb 5, 2014 6:16 AM
16	Enegy	Feb 5, 2014 5:56 AM
17	The clear commitment from people	Feb 5, 2014 5:08 AM
18	More must be done in Forth Valley	Feb 3, 2014 7:11 AM

Page 3, Q3. Did you leave the event with any new ideas?

1	that similar events need to be rolled out and include as many people as possible, especially service users	Feb 14, 2014 2:30 AM
2	Liase with more services, have leaflets for these service available to point people in the right direction as at the moment we do not point people in the direction of these services.	Feb 13, 2014 5:43 AM
3	Better communication	Feb 10, 2014 5:16 AM
4	probably that the recovery message needs to be furthered within all support services and not just within the treatment services	Feb 7, 2014 12:36 AM
5	Networking and signposting people to resources they perhaps didn't know about before.	Feb 5, 2014 8:23 AM
6	People in recovery need support in the second stage of recovery just as much as in the first	Feb 5, 2014 7:18 AM
7	Integrate the recovery message into community planning activity.	Feb 5, 2014 7:14 AM
8	In terms of my individual practise, I will focus more on looking to recovery at the very beginning of treatment, planting the seed that recovery is possible and whilst it may take time it is achievable.	Feb 5, 2014 6:16 AM
9	Networking more	Feb 5, 2014 5:56 AM
10	The idea that small things matter	Feb 5, 2014 5:08 AM

1	Really well run day, left with a sense of greater unity about moving forward. Circle time at the end was powerful.	Feb 27, 2014 3:38 AM
2	It would be good to see these cafe's within Forth valley	Feb 17, 2014 6:36 AM
3	Well organised and sincere but felt most participants belief in recovery and genuine commitment was at best insincere	Feb 17, 2014 5:21 AM
4	i came away feeling rejuvenated and invigorised	Feb 14, 2014 2:31 AM
5	I really enjoyed the day and met a lot of nice people and had some good chats about recovery with them.	Feb 13, 2014 5:43 AM
6	Very well organised, very positive atmosphere. Shame that very few medical services in attendance.	Feb 10, 2014 6:20 AM
7	Outstanding	Feb 10, 2014 5:18 AM
8	good to move round the room and hear what others have to say - move out of comfort zone ie get away from people you normally work/network with to listen as well as contribute - thank you	Feb 7, 2014 12:38 AM
9	was very glad to be a part of it	Feb 5, 2014 10:28 AM
10	Inspiring and motivational!	Feb 5, 2014 9:18 AM
11	Enabled a diverse group of people from those with lived experience and those who support and help those with lived experience whether friends ,families or workers to work closely together to share ideas,views and future aspirations on the theme of recovery . The workshop was a community in itself for that day with a clear motivation to try and make things better for the future.	Feb 5, 2014 8:28 AM
12	Would love to attend another one. It is important that treatment providers hear from people in recovery	Feb 5, 2014 7:19 AM
13	Worthwhile event. Congratulations to all involved. Must make sure the actions captured are fed into ADPs.	Feb 5, 2014 7:15 AM
14	The event was well organised from the greeter at the front desk as you came in to the last comments of the day in the circle. It was a lovely experience for everybody, especially the Service Users who talked about it all the way home in the car	Feb 5, 2014 6:26 AM
15	The Cafe was energising if not emotional, my hope is that the enthusiasm generated translates into day to day practise.	Feb 5, 2014 6:17 AM
16	i came away full of hope!	Feb 5, 2014 5:56 AM
17	Anne marie delivered an inclusive, supportive day . All enjoyed it and it has commented on positively by many .	Feb 5, 2014 5:09 AM
18	Disappointed in the registration process due to IT issues. This led to huge problems in numbers of people who registered	Feb 3, 2014 7:12 AM
